Artist

Erté was born in St. Petersburg, Russia, as Romain de Tirtoff. In 1912 he emigrated to his fantasy world, Paris, where in 1913 he began to work with couturier Paul Poiret. The year 1915 marked the beginning of his association with "Harper's Bazar" – a relationship that lasted twenty-two years. During that period he also began his work with the theatre, designing sets and costumes for such famed productions as the Folies Bergère, The Lido de Paris, The Ziegfeld Follies and for the foremost ballet and opera houses of the world.

Erté is once more broadening his appeal to the art conscious public by joining with Magifrance, Ltd. to create this edition of collectible fine art knitwear.
